

Margulis' measure for center isometries.

Pablo Carrasco

ICMC - USP

Resumo

In this talk we'll present a construction for the measure of maximal entropy for certain classes of maps, namely partially hyperbolic systems whose action in the center direction is isometric. We'll follow closely the ideas of G. Margulis in the analogous construction for hyperbolic flows.